SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

The university course is not only a path of academic and professional training, it is also the period in life when young people begin to really put themselves to the test and build bonds that will not easily be broken.

University is about sharing, learning, exchange, growth, and participation in the Erasmus project is a highly formative experience that allows students to get involved and broaden their horizons.

This is why we are delighted with the collaboration between our universities and hope that our relationship will grow stronger and stronger.
