PUBLIC MIGRATION LAW
Prof Elisa Olivito

SYLLABUS
2019-2020

Course Details
Faculty: Law
Undergraduate course: EUROPEAN STUDIES LM-90
Attendance: Not mandatory
Required Course: European and Italian Public Law
Student credits (CFU): 6
Teaching hours: 48
Semester: II (Spring term)
Start date: February 17th
End date: April 8th (excluding lessons to be make up)

Course Description
The aim of the course is the acquisition of the knowledge necessary to critically examine the legal issues concerning the constitutional status of foreigners, fundamental rights and duties of migrants, as well as migration and asylum laws. They will be analysed in order to highlight the peculiar legal problems related to the intertwining between constitutional principles, national legislation and legal constraints arising from European Union law, international law, and from the European Convention on Human Rights.
The course will focus on the study of the following issues:
- The constitutional status of foreigners
- The evolution of the Italian legislation on migration and the legal status of foreigners
- The intertwining of national policies with EU policy and legislation on migration and asylum
- The constitutional rights of migrants: recognition and guarantees
- Citizenship and integration policies

Required Textbooks
At the beginning of the semester the texts will be available for consultation through the library of “Sezione di Diritto pubblico” (first floor).
Attendee students will find judgments and other reading materials on the website (http://elearning2.uniroma1.it/). The teacher will give further details during the course.

Assessment

Attendee students: in class midterm assignment and oral final discussion, as indicated by the teacher.

Non-attendee students: oral final examination on the syllabus as resulting from all the textbooks indicated.

For the purposes of the final assessment, the following elements will be taken into consideration: positive assessment of the in class assignment (for attending students); presentation and critical reasoning skills, legal language skills (for all students).

Classroom Rules

1. Recording of the lesson is not allowed.
2. Laptops and similar devices may be used in class, but not for Internet surfing, text messaging, or comparably distracting extracurricular activities.

Office Hours

Tuesday, 11-12 a.m. (from February 18th to May 5th).
Tuesday, 10-11 a.m. (remaining months).